

Seven New Reasons
to Lovelife™

by OhMiBod®

Introducing (our) Lovelife...

The Lovelife line of pleasure products by OhMiBod's co-founders, Brian and Suki, was inspired from the couple's 26-year relationship. Over the decades, they have shared some amazing experiences, and Lovelife is an emotionally charged reflection of their core relationship values. Everything from the creative packaging and playful naming convention to the sophisticated design was born from their love of one another, as well as the industry they are so proud and passionate to be part of.

Brian and Suki believe that words like share, discover, dream, smile, and adventure are all cornerstones in any successful relationship. It's what couples do together, and more importantly – what keeps them together.

We are extremely proud to introduce you to our 7 new reasons to Lovelife.
